DIOCESE OF DACCA, INDIA

U. S. Province of the Congregation of Holy Cross (C.S.C.)

The Vicariate Apostolic of Bengal was erected in 1834, and by Papal Decree, February 15, 1850, the Vicariate Apostolic of Eastern Bengal was separated from it. The original territory of this Vicariate was curtailed by the establishment of the Prefecture Apostolic of Central Bengal in 1870 and again by the Prefecture Apostolic of Assam in 1889. In 1886 it was constituted a Diocese under the Hierarchy, and in 1927 the Diocese of Chittagong was erected under the care of the Canadian Province while the Districts of Dacca, Pabna, Mymensingh, Tippera and Hill Tippera, as the Diocese of Dacca was retained under the sole care of the U. NATIONAL CATHOLIC WELFARE CONFERENCE

Address—1312 Massachusetts ave., N. W., Washington, D. C.
Phone: REpublic 3553.

The National Catholic Welfare Conference, established in 1919, as the successor to the National Catholic War Council, one of the seven welfare agencies recognized by the U. S. Government during World War I, is an organization of the members of the Hierarchy of the United States, for the purposes specified in the Brief "Communes" issued by His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV, April 10, 1919, and in the Letter of His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, of August 10, 1927. The National Catholic Welfare Conference is not a council or legislative assembly, as contemplated by the Sacred Canons, and therefore, the resolutions of the Bishops at the meetings of the National Catholic Welfare Conference do not have the force of law. Every Bishop may make use of any service offered by the Conference through its Departments, Committees, general secretary, and staff officers at the National Headquarters. The Conference aims to facilitate discussions of policies affecting the interests and activities of the Church in the United States.

Every Bishop of the Church in the United States and its territories and possessions, whether residential or titular, ipso facto has active and passive voice in the Conference.

The Conference is incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia and has for its objects the unifying, coordinating and organizing of the Catholic people of the United States in works of education, social welfare, immigrant aid, civic education and other activities.

The Conference is administered by a board composed of ten Bishops elected at the annual meeting of the Hierarchy of the United States to serve for the term of one year. No elected Bishop shall be eligible to serve more than five consecutive terms, but he may be again eligible for election after one year out of office.

PONTIFICAL ASSOCIATION OF THE HOLY CHILDHOOD, National Office, 949 N. Lincoln ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.—Founded in 1843, by Bishop Charles de Forbin Janson. It is the official agency of the Holy See through which Catholic children of the world make their contribution of prayer and alms toward the spiritual and temporal welfare of children in mission lands. Since its beginning, it has enjoyed the personal favor of every Pope. In 1926, Pope Pius XI elevated the Society to Pontifical Rank. Holy Childhood endeavors to attain its end through the united efforts of all Catholic children who as members are taught to cooperate with the propagation of the Faith by means of study, prayer and sacrifice. All funds are distributed annually to every part of the mission world by a Pontifical Commission, a generous allotment being provided for the Home Missions of the United States. All allocations sent to the Missions through the agency of the Holy Childhood are used solely in the interests of the children of these missions. In this way, the world-wide membership of the Association each year procures Baptism for more than 500,000 infants and supports and educates nearly 1,000,000 orphans.
